Answered Prayers:

Praise and thanksgiving to God! Pat W's sister, Delores, since the removal of her lung tumor has been cancer free for the last several months. Continued monitoring will be done every so often to check on status. Thank you for all the prayers!

Praise be to God for all your prayers for healing. Cindy has done so well with minimal side effects on the first round of chemo that they aren't planning at this time to continue more intensive chemo. After January 5 the doctors will assess and schedule a surgery followed by radiation. Cindy is so very thankful for all the prayers and cards. There is still much to be done, but God has blessed her richly through your prayers.

Prayer Requests:

Ben contracted Covid while visiting family in Kentucky. His return home is delayed and he will quarantine for 5 days after his return.

Hallie's mom, Jennifer, tested positive for Covid. Her underlying health conditions could pose a risk to her healing. Hallie's brother is also ill. Please pray for a quick recovery for all of them.

The M. Family as they prepare for a move to Tennessee.

Hannah and family thanks everyone for their prayers and expressions of concern. Hannah has a long way to go but she is now on the right path. Courtney was finally able to see Hannah in the hospital and the visit went really well. She is now calling and asking Courtney to visit more often. Pray for Hannah that she will cooperate with the medical team at Children's and at the treatment place after she gets out of the hospital so she can heal and get better. Prayers are being answered all around and they are feeling blessed by God.

Bob requests prayers as he searches for employment.

Elly fell and broke two ribs. She is starting to feel some relief from the pain and becoming more mobile. She gives credit to God and all the prayers on her behalf for the quick improvement.

Alex has the Omicron variant and is at home recovering. Alex says he has recently relapsed back into some of his addictive behaviors and requests prayers for him to regain his spiritual strength to resist these types of temptations

Marj, (Clinton's maternal grandmother) moved to an adult family home in hopes that a new environment will provide a better quality of life for her. Her bed sore has improved but not yet fully healed. We appreciate your continued prayers for her healing and comfort.
