The Parables of Jesus – Brad and Roger

Congratulations! Haley & Michael will marry on Jan. 9, 2021. They plan to have an intimate ceremony with family at a cabin in the mountains. We are happy for and pray God's blessings on the upcoming wedding and on Haley's and Michael's future marriage.

Diane's release from the hospital was delayed for a few more days. There was an indication of an additional infection, so her antibiotic coverage was broadened to hopefully kill the source of the infection. Her nutritional needs continue to be problematic. She was able to eat a home cooked meal and is continuing medication for nausea. They are hoping she will be discharged on Monday.

Michell requests that doors will open for her daughter to attend a private Christian school. She feels this will be best for Jacklyn's well-being.

Bryan recently had a check up with his doctors. There is no growth where the cancer had been found previously. However, 5 additional polyps were discovered but they all appear to be benign; biopsy results should be available in 2 weeks.

Andrea's uncle, Sergio, 61, passed away recently from Covid. Please keep Andrea and her family in your prayers during this time of loss.

Pray for our country, church, and leaders during these troubling times.

Pray for a quick resolution to the pandemic and that Satan will not be able to use this health crisis to divide or weaken our church family. Please remember especially our members who are quarantined alone.
